

College Project Rubric-2005

Deadline: Monday, September 19, 2005

Three points off: Each day late

Three extra credit points for submitting the project by Friday, September 16, 2005

Please conduct research on four universities to which you might apply.

University I: Your dream school

University II: A school you are interested in attending

University III: A school you are interested in attending

University IV: Your Safety school

You are allowed to cut and paste from internet resources for this project or to photocopy other resources and cut out what you need. However, I expect your answer to Part E to be in your own words and written in a grammatically correct format.
